

CONTESTED EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNAL FEES

This firm is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority, and as such we are required to provide the following information pursuant to the SRA Transparency Rules.

Please note that as each matter is fact specific, the following information is only an indication of our likely fees in a matter. Our total overall fees are therefore impossible to quote at the beginning of a case and accordingly, none of this information, whether in whole or in part, should be treated as offering any binding or fixed fee.

Bringing or defending a claim in an employment tribunal can be expensive. Obviously, cases can proceed to trials that normally last from one day to a week or so, depending on complexity. Our fee earners charge by the hour and fees range from £145 per hour plus VAT to £315 per hour plus VAT. Our total fees for a contested tribunal proceedings usually range from approximately £5,000 to £9,000 plus VAT and disbursements such as travel and photocopying, but can be more or less, depending on the type of case and the length of time that it takes.

You will note that our fees do not include VAT. VAT on our fees must therefore be paid in addition to our fees.

Further details of our Terms of Business can be found in our Client Care Statement.
